#	Claimant	CPUC	Comment
1	Conservation Groups	Correct	This Claim for Intervenor Compensation refers to American Rivers, California Trout, and Trout Unlimited collectively known as “Conservation Groups.”
2	Conservation Groups	Correct	Each of the Conservation Groups represents the interests of residential and small business customers of PacifiCorp. In Section 3.1.2 (at 5) of her “Ruling Regarding Notice of Intent to Claim Compensation” (September 6, 2012), the ALJ found that each group is a customer within the third meaning of Pub. Util. Code § 1802(b)(1)(c).
3	Conservation Groups	Correct	In Section 3.1.2 (at 6) of her “Ruling Regarding Notice of Intent to Claim Compensation,” the ALJ found that each of the Claimant Conservation Groups met the requirements of Pub. Util. Code §1804(a), including the requirement that it establish financial hardship.

PART II: SUBSTANTIAL CONTRIBUTIONA. Claimant’s description of its contribution to the final decision (see § 1802(i), § 1803(a) & D.98-04-059)

We organize our contributions to correspond to the Conclusions of Law in D.12-10-028. Conservation Groups highlighted that PacifiCorp’s request was necessary to collect the funds by December 31, 2019, that the delays resulted from the amount of time it took to establish trust accounts, which PacifiCorp had no control over, and that the original decision contemplated that “the amount of the Klamath surcharge may be revised....” See Opening Brief at 3. Conservation Groups demonstrated the inaccuracy of DRA’s argument that Section 4.3 of the KHSA requires a	D.12-10-028 found at 24: 3. Since: (a) the delay in collecting the authorized surcharge was out of PacifiCorp’s control; (b) PacifiCorp is required pursuant to the KHSA to collect $13.76 million from California customers by December 31, 2019; and (c) PacifiCorp’s proposed revised Klamath surcharge is within the two percent cap, the Commission should grant PacifiCorp’s request to modify D.11-05-002. D.12-10-028 found at 24, 25-26: 4. Conservation Groups highlighted that any arguments regarding uncertainty of the implementation of the KHSA were beyond the scope of the proceeding and, though not addressing the merits of such arguments, noted that they contested them. See Reply Brief at 3.	11. Because the purpose of Section 4.3 of the KHSA is to ensure that certain adjustments are made, after consultation among the relevant parties to the KHSA after the Secretarial Determination, this section evinces no intent to prevent the Commission, which is not a party to the KHSA, from adjusting the California Klamath surcharge at an earlier time, due to the fact that intervening events have made some of the assumptions underlying the Commission's own prior decision, no longer accurate.
Conservation Groups highlighted that SCWUA's request for daily transfer of funds, rather than every 15th day of the month, was beyond the scope of the proceeding. See Reply Brief at 3.	D.12-10-028 found at 25: 8. While properly outside the scope of the current proceeding, even if we were to look at the parties concerns regarding the achievement of milestones in order to determine whether to grant PacifiCorp's current request, these concerns would not change our conclusion.
Conservation Groups highlighted that SCWUA's request for daily transfer of funds, rather than every 15th day of the month, was beyond the scope of the proceeding. See Reply Brief at 3.	D.12-10-028 found at 25: 9. SCWUA's suggestion that the deposit date of the Klamath surcharge should be revised has nothing to do with whether or not PacifiCorp should collect the authorized total surcharge of $13.76 million over a shorter period of time.
Conservation Groups were the only parties that provided a reply brief to the comments on the proposed decision.	D.12-10-028 found at 19: On October 16, 2012, reply comments were filed jointly by AR, CT, and TU.

B. Duplication of Effort (§§ 1801.3(f) & 1802.5):

	Claimant	CPUC Verified
a. Was the Division of ratepayer Advocates (DRA) a party to the proceeding?	Yes	Correct
b. Were there other parties to the proceeding?	Yes	Correct
c. Name of other parties (if applicable): The other parties in this proceeding were: County of Siskiyou (including Siskiyou County Flood Control and Water Conservation District and Siskiyou Power Authority), Karuk Tribe, Yurok Tribe, Klamath Water Users Association (KWUA), Pacific Coast Federation of Fishermen's Associations (PCFFA), Institute for Fisheries Resources (IFR), Siskiyou County Water Users Association and Rich Marshall (jointly referred to as SCWUA), Conservation Groups, and Applicant PacifiCorp.		In addition to parties listed, The Utility Reform Network was also a party to this proceeding.
d. Claimant's description of how it coordinated with DRA and other parties to avoid duplication or how Claimant's participation supplemented, complemented, or contributed to that of another party: Conservation Groups jointly filed Opening and Reply Briefs. Their three attorneys and other policy staffers, located in multiple locations, used conference calls and emails to coordinate the review of the briefs. Mr. Niirio was the lead drafter of the Opening and Reply Briefs, with Mr. Roos-Collins reviewing, to avoid any duplication in that task. Conservation Groups also discussed drafts with PCFFA, IFR, the Karuk Tribe, and PacifiCorp to minimize duplication of effort.		We make no reductions to the Conservation Group's claim for unnecessary duplication of effort with other parties.

PART III: REASONABLENESS OF REQUESTED COMPENSATIONA. General Claim of Reasonableness (§§ 1801 & 1806):

Claimant's explanation of how its participation bore a reasonable relationship with benefits realized through its participation.	CPUC Verified
Conservation Groups claim $7,336 in intervenor compensation. As shown above, we contributed substantially to the Commission's decision to approve PacifiCorp's request for modification of D.11-05-002. As signatories of the KHSA, our participation was consistent with our obligation to support implementation of the KHSA through rate recovery and otherwise. The Commission's approval will permit continuing implementation.	Except as noted below (in Parts III-B and IIID) regarding specific hourly rates, we agree that the Conservation Group's hours are reasonable and that its efforts resulted in measurable benefits to customers, which far outweigh the cost of its participation

C. Additional Comments on Part III (Attachments not attached to final Decision):

Comment #	Description/Comment
Comment 1	The requested rate for Richard Roos-Collins is based on the adopted rate in prior cases, adjusted by 3% per year. Specifically, in D.11-09-038, the Commission adopted an hourly rate of $365 for Mr. Roos-Collins for work performed in 2010-2011. The requested rate is $365 (2011) increased by 3% interest on a simple (non-compounded) basis for one year.
Comment 2	The requested rate for Nicholas Niiro is based on his expertise. He has a B.S. in Biochemistry (UCLA) and a J.D. (Georgetown). Prior to joining the Water and Power Law Group PC, Mr. Niiro worked for Trial Partners, a national litigation consulting firm (2006-2012). At Trial Partners, he specialized in advising clients on environmental and toxic tort matters.
Comment 3	This rate is ½ of Nicholas Niiro's proposed rate for substantive work.

D. CPUC Disallowances & Adjustments:

#	Reason
Adjustment to Richard Roos-Collins' 2012 hourly rate.	After reviewing the Conservation Groups' comments, the Commission awards Richard Roos-Collins a 2012 hourly rate of $370 per hour for work completed in 2012. This is based on Richard Roos-Collins award of $365 per hour for work completed in 2010-2011 (see D.11-09-038) and Resolution ALJ-281, which states that the cost of living adjustment for 2012 is 2.2%. Instead of using the Conservation Group's percentage increase of 3%, we used 2.2% rounded to the nearest $5 (total disallowance of $28).

PART IV: OPPOSITIONS AND COMMENTS

A. Opposition: Did any party oppose the claim?

B. Comment Period: Was the 30-day comment period waived (see Rule 14.6(c)(6))?
